This line from the DOJ investigation announcement reads a little stronger (and foretells SEC hand-off) in light of recent events with \$sava

WASHINGTON, July 27 (Reuters) - The U.S. Justice Department has opened a criminal investigation into Cassava Sciences Inc (SAVA.O) involving whether the biotech company manipulated research results for its experimental Alzheimer's drug, two people familiar with the inquiry said.

The Justice Department personnel conducting the investigation into Austin, Texas-based Cassava specialize in examining whether companies or individuals have misled or defrauded investors, government agencies or consumers, according to the Texas-based Cassava specialize in examining whether companies or individuals have misled or defrauded investors, government agencies or consumers, according to the sources, who spoke on condition of anonymity. The sources did not provide details of the focus of the probe and whether the department was looking into any specific individuals.

And is entirely consistent with the SEC Enforcement Manual guidelines $sava

Authority:

A number of SEC rules grant the Commission the authority to make informal referrals, which authority the Commission has delegated to staff.

• Rule 5(b) of the SEC's Informal and Other Procedures, 17 C.F.R. § 202.5(b):

After investigation or otherwise the Commission may in its discretion take one or more of the following actions: Institution of administrative proceedings looking to the imposition of remedial sanctions, initiation of injunctive proceedings in the courts, and, in the case of a willful violation, reference of the matter to the Department of Justice for criminal prosecution. The Commission may also, on some occasions, refer the matter to, or grant requests for access to its files made by, domestic and foreign governmental authorities or foreign securities authorities, SROs such as stock exchanges or the [Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc.], and other persons or entities.

Is this the Reuters article with the "anonymous sources"? Media used anonymous sources to push the biggest conspiracy theory in history for 3 years, the Russia-Trump conspiracy theory. Did you believe those anonymous sources as well?
